Nan-ch'iao Jih-pao, 13 Oct 49

Pei-p'ing, 8 October (NCNA) -- An emergency meeting of the North China People's Government was called on 6 October to wind up its activities so that it might turn over its functions to the Central People's Government. A brief report on activities carried out by this government during the past year was made by Chairman Tung Pi-wu, who pointed out that although it has done a remarkable job, many improvements must still be made in government administration. He emphasized that two of the greatest evils still existing are the bureaucratic tendency and operational inefficiency.
